

Joshua's Farewell Address

JOSHUA 23-24

INTRODUCTION

- In his farewell address to the nation, Joshua reminded them to remember the promises and curses which are written in the book of law. He reviewed the history with them and advised them to make a resolution to serve the God faithfully, fearfully

INTRODUCTION

- He also build an alter of stone as a memorial and renewed the mosaic covenant at Shechem.
- Lesson for us as believers in Christ is that:
- We should always remember the promises and warnings in the Word

INTRODUCTION

- We should review the history to see the faithfulness of God with His people.
- We should resolve to serve God fearfully, faithfully and firmly.
- We should also renew our commitment to the Lord on regular

We should remember the promises of God.

- Joshua counseled the nation to remain true to God and remember the promises and curses written in the book of law. Chapter 23:1-16; Dt 28:1-68.
- Our blessings are based upon our obedience to the word of God

We should review the history to be encouraged in our faith.

- Joshua encouraged the nation by reviewing the history and reminded them of God's faithfulness. He told them that it was God who has given them victory over all of their enemies. Joshua 24:1-13

We should review the history to be encouraged in our faith.

- In the same way it is God who make us victorious over all our enemies, when we walk obediently with Him.
- Apostle Paul reminds us that “ If God is for us who can be against us”? Roman 8:31b

We should resolve to serve God.

- We should serve God fearfully.
- We should serve God faithfully.
- We should serve God firmly. Joshua
24:14-21

CONCLUSION

- In his farewell address to the nation, Joshua counseled them to remember the promises and warnings of the Lord, review the history, resolve to serve God and renew the covenant in order to receive His blessing and avoid the punishment.

CONCLUSION

- These principles are applicable to us also.
- We should remember the promises and warnings given to us in His Word.
- We should review our own and history of God's people to see God's faithfulness.

CONCLUSION

- We should resolve to serve God fearfully, faithfully and firmly all the days of our life and
- We should renew our commitment to serve God on regular basis.
